
Direct paired contrasts on the same held-out roots. Separate exploratory pointwise intervals; no multiplicity adjustment.
Open diamonds mark point estimates with unavailable intervals.
For constant predictors, zero contrast reflects identical fits, not equivalence.
No target errors: probability-loss comparison only; target AUROC is undefined.